Marketing Materials & Technical Specifications

The Purchaser acknowledges that any technical specifications, descriptions, finishes, visuals, or other information presented in brochures, catalogues, websites, or other marketing materials (including the Technical Specifications) are provided for general guidance and illustrative purposes only.

Such materials may include indicative descriptions (e.g. “high-quality”, “architect’s choice”, or similar wording) and do not constitute a legally binding specification of the Property.

Contractual Precedence

The parties expressly agree that only the specifications, materials, and finishes expressly set out in:

- the Contract of Sale, and
- any duly executed Supplementary Agreement

shall be legally binding.

In the event of any discrepancy between marketing materials and the Contract of Sale, the Contract of Sale shall prevail.

Developer’s Right to Variations

The Developer reserves the right to amend, substitute, or vary any materials, finishes, layouts, or technical specifications described in marketing materials or the Technical Specifications, including those described as “high-quality” or similar, where reasonably required due to:

- availability of materials,
- construction or design requirements, or
- compliance with applicable laws or authority requirements, provided that the overall standard and quality of the Property is not materially reduced.

No Reliance

The Purchaser confirms that they have not relied on any representations, specifications, or statements contained in any marketing materials (including website content), other than those expressly incorporated into the Contract of Sale.

Any reference to branded, sourced, or origin-based materials (including ‘European’, ‘designer’, or similar) shall be interpreted as indicative of quality standard only and not as a commitment to specific brands, manufacturers, or countries of origin.”
